Get away from your own sorrow

Let the sun come through your window

You don't have to open up wide

But I want to intimate

You'll never know how much your voice attracts me, boy

It's exceptional

Especially, when you're playing the song for me

I can't take my eyes away

Can I walk with you or have a tea with you?

Your scent makes me feel like I live in Paris

Can I love you? Giving my all to you?

You, yeah

Get away from their unkindness

But this time we should run together

You don't have to worry or hide

'Cause I get you with my heart

Now you know how much your eyes

Make me wonder 'bout how deep is our love

Especially, when you appreciate for me

I can't help loving you more

Can I walk with you or have a tea with you?

Your scent makes me feel like I live in Paris

Can I love you? Giving my all to you?

You, yeah
